emur

Spic Call. FC 219 C22

176512 B RB 20425

Ex libris dalversulatis albertaeasis

Canadian Rockies

The world famed Rocky Mountains, for grandeur and varied scenery, are unsurpassed, and need little introduction. Half a century ago they were little known, but since then the C.P.R. have accomplished the almost impossible task of running their line through the Mountains, and now no better scenery is to be found anywhere. From Banff right to Vancouver the picture is magnificent and bewildering. The large snow-capped peaks, beautiful valleys and lakes, have well earned them the name of the "Wonderland of Canada." With a splendid string of Hotels at various points, the Rockies have become one of the greatest tourist centres in the world.

PUBLISHED BY

THE VALENTINE & SONS UNITED PUBLISHING COY., LIMITED, MONTREAL - TORONTO - WINNIPEG - VANCOUVER

Bow River from Banff Springs Hotel

Banff Hotel and Mt. Rundle, Banff

Drive near C.P.R. Hotel, Banff

Spray River and Cascade Mount. Banff

Sulphur Baths, Banff

Buffalo in Park, Banff

Mount Edith, Sanff

Lake Louise and Victoria Glacier, near Laggan

Victoria Glacier and Mt. Lefroy, Laggan

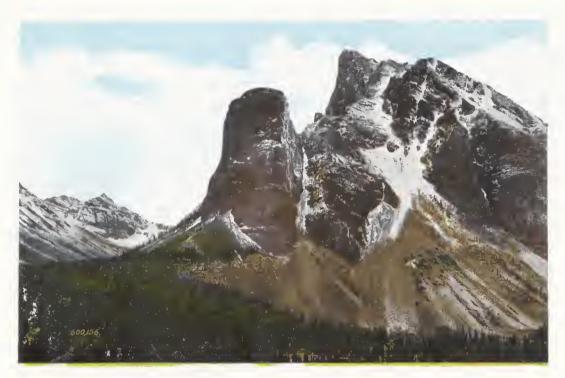

Mount Lefroy (Alt. 11,290), Lake Louise

Castle Ctags, Lefroy, Hazel and Lake Agnes

Lake Louise, Laggan

Tower of Babel and Mt. Fay, Ten Peak Valley

Moraine Lake, Valley of the Ten Peaks

Mount Stephen (Alt. 10,523)

C.P.R. Hotel and Mt. Stephen (Alt. 10,523), Field

Field, B.C, and Mt. Stephen (Alt. 10,523).

Emerald Lake

Emerald Peak and Cascade

Twm Falls, Yoho Valley

Waputekh Ice Fields, Yoho Valley

Glacier, B.C.

Sir Donald (Alt. 10,808) and Illecillewaet Glacier

Great Glacier of the Selkirks, Glacier

Asulkan Glacier showing Crevasse, Glacier

Mount Sir Donald

Illecillewaet Valley and Loop from Mount Abbott

Along the Fraser Canyon, showing Four Tunnels

C.P.R. Train "Imperial Limited" in the heart of the Canadian Rockies

Cariboo Bridge, near Spuzzum

